HEARST CHOREOGRAPHERS IN RESIDENCE

Conversations with the Artists

RALPH LEMON
March 15 // 8 p.m.
ROBERTS DANCE STUDIO at Lewis Arts complex

Ralph Lemon, whose career spans over 30 years, is a director, choreographer, writer, visual artist and curator, and the artistic director of Cross Performance, a company dedicated to the creation of cross-cultural and cross-disciplinary performance and presentation. In 2016 he was awarded the National Medal of Arts by President Barack Obama and he has received two “Bessie” Awards. He is known for developing intellectually rigorous and experimental performances that are as socially and politically resonant as they are personal. Lemon will be speaking about his project, Ceremonies Out of the Air, where he merges live performance, story telling, and film to invoke his long-standing exploration of the American South, uncovering the complexity of geography, history, and memory.

Open ONLY to Princeton students, faculty and staff.

arts.princeton.edu